FORT BRAGG AREA OFFICERS' SPOUSES' CLUB
CONTINUING EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP ELIGIBILITY

General Eligibility Requirements and Definitions for All Scholarship Applicants

A. For the purposes of eligibility determination, the "Fort Bragg Area" is defined as the area within 50 miles of the boundaries of Fort Bragg in any direction.
B. All Applicants must have a current United States Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card (military ID card).
C. Active duty and active duty reserve service members are not eligible for the scholarships.

Eligibility for the FBAOSC Continuing Education Scholarship Program

A. If the Applicant is eligible for membership in the FBAOSC, the Applicant must be an active full year member of the Fort Bragg Area Officers' Spouses' Club for the year of application.
B. The applicant must be the spouse of an active duty or active duty reserve service member assigned to Fort Bragg or the spouse of a retired or deceased military officer or enlisted service member whose last duty station was Fort Bragg.
C. An applicant must be residing in the Fort Bragg area at the time of application and live in the service member's home.
D. If the Sponsor transfers from Fort Bragg during the year of the application and the Applicant remains in the Fort Bragg area, the Applicant will be eligible for the scholarship.
E. The Applicant must have applied to one of the following programs:
    1. A vocational or technical program leading to a degree certificate; or,
    2. A two or four year undergraduate program leading to a degree; or,
    3. A graduate program leading to a degree.